

Simply put, if the Sinclair group is allowed to air a very partisan, anti-Kerry "infomercial" right before the election, the Democrats should be allowed equal time to air whatever they feel will best either defend or promote their candidate. It is a simple concept. One that has been respected until now. And it is fair. Susan Swanson